

The Pledge of Allegiance

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic
for which it stands, one Nation
under God,
indivisible,
with liberty and justice for all.

The National Anthem

O say can you see, by the dawn's early light, What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight, O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there;
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

The Preamble of the United States Constitution

We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

The Three Branches of Government

The Executive Branch carries out laws.
It is headed by the president.

The Legislative Branch makes laws.
It is headed by Congress, which includes the Senate and the House of Representatives.

The Judicial Branch evaluates laws.
It is headed by the Supreme Court.
