

Apologia Advanced Biology

The Human Body: Fearfully and Wonderfully Made!

Module 3: Skin and Bones - The Integumentary and Skeletal Systems

Vocabulary from Module 3 of Apologia Educational Ministries' The Human Body: Fearfully and Wonderfully Made! by Dr. Jay Wile and Marilyn M. Shannon, M.A.

www.CrosswordWeaver.com

Clues for “Skin and Bones - The Integumentary and Skeletal Systems”

The Human Body: Fearfully and Wonderfully Made! – Module 3

ACROSS

- 1 Bone formation
- 6 A hole
- 7 A projection on a bone
- 9 Dense irregular connective tissue that forms the deep layer of the skin
- 11 _____ bone is a dense bone matrix enclosing only a few small spaces.
- 13 The outer portion of the skin, formed by epithelial tissue which rests on the dermis
- 14 The portion of the skeleton that attaches to the axial skeleton and has limbs attached to it is the _____ skeleton.
- 15 Hyaline cartilage that covers the ends of a bone in a joint is called _____ cartilage.

DOWN

- 2 A hollowed out space in a bone
- 3 The portion of the skeleton that supports and protects the head, neck, and trunk is the _____ skeleton.
- 4 The process of manufacturing blood cells
- 5 Loose connective tissue underneath the dermis which connects the dermis to muscle or bone
- 8 Bone with many small spaces or cavities surrounding the bone matrix is called _____ bone.
- 10 A junction between flat bones of the skull
- 12 A passageway

Solutions to "Skin and Bones - The Integumentary and Skeletal Systems"

The Human Body: Fearfully and Wonderfully Made! – Module 3

