

Apologia Advanced Biology

The Human Body: Fearfully and Wonderfully Made!

Module 4: Skeletal System Histology and Movement

Vocabulary from Module 4 of Apologia Educational Ministries' The Human Body: Fearfully and Wonderfully Made! by Dr. Jay Wile and Marilyn M. Shannon, M.A.

Clues:

ACROSS

- 1 A localized mass of blood that is confined to an organ or some definable space
- 3 A mass of tissue that connects the ends of a broken bone
- 4 A mature bone cell surrounded by bone matrix
- 5 A large, multinucleated cell that breaks down bone
- 6 A bone forming cell

DOWN

- 2 The _____ position is the position acquired when one stands erect with the feet facing forward, the upper limbs hanging at the sides, and the palms facing forward with the thumbs to the outside.

Solutions to “Skeletal System Histology and Movement”

The Human Body: Fearfully and Wonderfully Made! – Module 4

